

Strengthening the Board Chair/CEO Partnership: Key to Effective Governance

Building a strong and productive relationship between Board chairs and chief executives is crucial for Board effectiveness and health center well-being. Through brief presentations, small group exercises, and individual reflections, participants will:

- ◆ Expand their knowledge of effective health center governance,
- ◆ Identify specific ways in which to support each other as organizational leaders and become a more effective leadership team,
- ◆ Gain ideas for how to turn their Board into more of an organizational asset,
- ◆ Find new ways in which to plan and conduct Board meetings that are engaging, productive, and enjoyable.

“I found the session most helpful – especially as a new Board Chair – the exercises and case studies helped immensely.”

— Board Chair

“For me the training helped hone in on very important relationship issues between Board Chairs and CEOs. In addition, the training emphasizes the need to adhere to strong business ethics in order for community health centers to compete and be successful in the marketplace.” — CEO

Note: Both the health center CEO and Board Chair are required to attend this training together.

Pre-registration is required.

Dress is business casual. Because the temperature in meeting rooms is set so individuals in suits will be comfortable, consider bringing a sweater or jacket.
